This Photo Section is dedicated mainly for students of the Department of Communication, University of Jyväskylä, taking a course: Press Photography as a Medium for Intercultural Communication. During this time, there will be published photography tutorial, considerate mainly press photography analysis.

The course will take place between 24th of March 2011 to 27th of April 2011 in the Department of Communication. Farther course description you will find here:

There are different sub-sections, dedicated to photography. Under each of them, you will find short online assignments as well as some tips for everyone who is interesting not only in taking photographs, but also in analysing them.

Discussion in general and on particular topics about photography is more than welcome. There will be separate theme description in each sub-section.
